If you believe you have purchased laminate flooring from Lumber Liquidators in California in the past four years, please fill out the following questionnaire and email it to toxicfree@lozeaudrury.com.

1. Did you purchase the flooring at a Lumber Liquidators location in California or over the internet to be installed at your address at your home in California?

2. If at a physical store in California, at which store did you purchase the product?

3. Was the product laminate flooring?

Yes No

4. Do you know the brand and variety or name of the particular laminate flooring product you purchased? If so, what was it?

5. When did you purchase the product?

6. Did you choose a Lumber Liquidators' product in part because of statements the company made about how environmentally-friendly the product is? (Did the company's statements about how environmentally-friendly its products are contribute to your decision to purchase the product?)

7. If you knew the flooring emits a chemical that causes cancer, would you have still bought the product?

8. Feel free to mention any problems you had or are having with the flooring, for example, heavy odors or headaches.
